

Individual Spotlight

Marilyn

Omaha | Individual exploring new connections through self-direction

About Me

Marilyn is a thoughtful, creative woman who values friendly conversation, familiar routines and feeling comfortable with the people around her. She enjoys calm, predictable connection and activities such as arts and crafts, singing, dancing, playing the piano and playing games on her smartphone.

She lives independently in her own apartment and appreciates support that allows her to build trust at her own pace.

What Matters Most To Me

Marilyn values meaningful connection and consistency. She enjoys seeing familiar faces, having conversations with her day coordinator and spending time doing activities she already knows and enjoys.

A calm presence and patient support help Marilyn feel secure and more confident in her daily routines.

My Goals & Dreams

Marilyn would like to continue strengthening her independence and advocating for herself. She is also working toward adding more walks into her routine.

She is seeking independent living support with budgeting, errands, household tasks and pet care. Marilyn prefers to meet providers first before setting a schedule.

My Ideal Connection

When she's not caring for others, Reaganne enjoys spending time outdoors, traveling, and trying new craft projects. She is known for her upbeat personality, positive attitude, and ability to find laughter in everyday moments.
